Desperation is a horror novel by American writer Stephen King. It was published in 1996 at the same time as its "mirror" novel, The Regulators, itself published under King's Richard Bachman pseudonym. It was made into a TV film starring Ron Perlman, Tom Skerritt and Steven Weber in 2006.

Stephen King has taken himself to be so political lately that bleeds through and his writing and its is offensive to those that don't hold his liberal views. Also I think he's living in the past, because his writing reflects certain little things that just strike you as being almost senile.

- Rotten Tomatoes

Desperation is one of the downright scariest books I've read, and the scares come early. King manages, for the most part, to keep the tension up throughout the novel, which makes it one hell of an uneasy read.
