Give Me Your Heart does not disappoint when it comes to dark, twisted tales, but I wouldn't have subtitled this collection "Tales of Mystery and Suspense." These short stories are all about twisted relationships, relationships that may have started off healthy but taken a wrong turn and gone horribly awry.

Other stories track the actions of an unHINGED individual (Give Me Your Heart, The Spill), and the suspense is tied to what actions the protagonist commits. Sexual crimes and other forms of violence play a large role in most of these stories, and many of the protagonists are young people caught in compromising positions.
