Phil, there are seemingly contrary rules and opinions, but we can gain at least some idea for the rules to follow when we recognize that the rules are different for fiction and nonfiction, for formal and informal writing needs. Using the right source for our projects and needs is a good start. Still, there are always multiple options.

Writing imagery with the 5 senses. Mastering the use of all five senses in prose takes a lot of practice. Let's look at each sense individually with examples from one of my favorite books, I Am The Messenger. Markus Zusak is known for using crisp and original imagery to illustrate both the mundane happenings of daily life, as well as extremely weird circumstances.
